PIZZAS

Story holds that on 11 June 1889, to honour Queen Margherita of Italy, The Pizza maker Raffaele Esposito was assigned to create an irresistible dish. He created a dish so irresistible, loved so much by the queen that the dish came to be popularly known as the “Margherita Pizza”, a pizza garnished with tomatoes, mozzarella, and basil, to represent the national colours of Italy.

Crunch in the crust and melt in the cheese,
Its Pizza calling Taste me please.
